at 1600 on Thursday 14 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain moving south, turning colder.

This Evening and Tonight:
A band of rain will move southwards from Scotland and Northern Ireland into northern England, Wales, the Midlands and East Anglia. Clearer skies following to northern parts and turning frosty for many, though showers affecting northern and eastern coasts.

Friday:
Cloud and patchy rain continuing southwards, becoming slow-moving across southwest England. Plenty of sunshine for most other areas but feeling colder than recently.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Fine at first, then rain for Northern-Ireland and western-Scotland at the weekend. Many parts of England, Wales and eastern-Scotland will remain dry, if cloudy, until widespread rain arrives on Monday.
